

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOL:

Advent Spiral Sunday 29th November

The Advent Spiral will take place this year on Sun 29th Nov in the Dining Room. The timings are:-

Class One: 3:30 pm

Class Two: 5:00 pm

Class Three: 6:30 pm

Adults: 8:00 pm

Hot Chocolate Thursdays

Come and have a Warming Drink of Hot Chocolate at 3.30 on Thursdays in the old car park – every cup gets Class VI a step closer to Hadrian's Wall! Thank you for your support.

UK Maths Challenge

Five pupils from class 11 and 12 entered the Senior Mathematical Challenge run by the UK Mathematics Trust. Well done to all those who took part. I am delighted to announce that Natalie Turner from Class 12 gained a Silver Certificate in the challenge. Congratulations! Tessa Tynan

Wanted we are looking for someone to write a computer program for us, can you or anyone you know help there is a small budget for this. Please see Carol.

Parking: Please do not park on the fenced off area at the entrance of the car park. This is a danger to other vehicles entering the car park and we would like to avoid any potential accidents. Thank you for your co-operation.

Inga's Kindergarten are making and selling beautiful handmade Advent Strings for your children in order to raise class funds. Each string will be made up of 25 individually wrapped gifts, all handmade, to complement the picture of the mineral, plant & animal world through advent.

PTFA NEWS

ADVENT FAIR Advent Strings

Examples of gifts include crystals, felted & knitted animals, shepherds, Mary, Joseph & more. These will all go towards building a small nativity scene for your child. Each string costs £15 & can be viewed & ordered in the school shop from Friday. Payment and orders must be received by Wed 25 Nov for collection Fri 27 Nov. Limited supply available, so order quickly!

Advent Fair – Continental Café

Class Three are managing the continental café this year at the advent fair and we need approximately 60-70 cakes. If you would be willing to help support us by making either a cake, small cakes, scones or even a savoury quiche please contact Andree 01923 2620808 or Kirstie 01923 262008

CINEMA CLUB

Why not join us this weekend in the fabulously comfy theatre for:-

The Best Years of our Lives – Friday 20th Nov at 7.30pm

Slumdog Millionaire – Saturday 21st Nov at 7.30pm

HELP – FREEZER NEEDED

Does anyone have a small freezer which we can borrow for the Advent Fair. This is for selling ice creams in the Theatre. Please contact Barbara on Reception. Thank you.

SCHOOL VIDEOS

We are looking for a volunteer parent to take some short video footage of various events at the school, starting specifically at some of the events at the Advent Fair. If you have some spare time to donate and are interested please contact me for more details. Many thanks. Priya Mahtani (For the Communications Group) Priya@rssl.org
Tel: 07909 991321

RAFFLE TICKETS

Please don't forget to return your raffle tickets to Reception. If you need more tickets please ask Barbara.

MISC:

SACRED CIRCLE DANCES

MONDAYS FROM 7.30PM – 9.00PM

Traditional circle dances and dances of universal peace continue on Mondays in the Eurythmy room. Donations welcome. If you enjoy singing, dancing and sharing beautiful open heart space, come, come whoever you are! For more information call Sophia on 01923 275338.

Calling all exotic critters and odd pets for a Zoology main lesson. Do you have any reptiles, creepy crawlies, birds or cuddly fuzzy friends about the house? Would your child like to present a prized pet to class 12 to help enliven our tour of the animal world? Could we borrow your pet for a morning in December? Please contact Tom on 01727 226194 or email tomg327@yahoo.com

TALKS/EVENTS:

Stargazing Evening (weather permitting)

This is the official Moonwatch week of the International Year of Astronomy. All Welcome. Thursday 26th November: Meet at 8pm in the field by Inga's Kindergarten. Gerard will give you a tour using a laser pointer, and you will also be able to look through a telescope and see the craters of the moon.
