

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOL:

SCHOOL VIDEOS

We are still looking for a volunteer parent to take some short video footage of various events at the school or even just for a handful of events at this year's Advent Fair. If you have some spare time to donate and are interested please contact me for more details. Many thanks. Priya Mahtani (For the Communications Group) Priya@rsskl.org

KINDERGARTEN ADVENT SPIRAL Mon 30th Nov

Marking the beginning of Advent, this very special festival for Kindergarten children takes place this year on Monday 30th November. Parents are asked to bring their children quietly to the Kindergarten, where they will be shown to their seats by their teacher. The morning will end for the children as their festival has come to a close and there will be no afternoon club on this day. Timings are as follows:-
Regina & Juje's groups to arrive at 8.45am
Suzy and Inga's groups to arrive at 10.15am

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

Winter is the time for comfort, for good food and warmth, for the touch of a friendly hand and for a talk beside the fire: it is the time for home.

Edith Sitwell

PTFA NEWS:

ADVENT FAIR FESTIVITIES:

Why not bring a friend this year to our exciting Advent fair festivities? With 170 stalls already confirmed, it is a great opportunity to buy those unique and beautiful Christmas gifts for your family and friends. With lots of activities for younger children – including the Enchanted Cookie House, the real Father Christmas all the way from Lapland, Candle-dipping and Craft Activities, it promises to be fun for all the family.

ADVENT FAIR HIGHLIGHTS:

It Was a Dark & Stormy Night 1.45pm – 2.30pm

Performed by professional storyteller Danya Miller together with 2 of our very own talented US pupils. Danya is an award winning storyteller with rave reviews for this show at the Edinburgh Festival this summer. It was named as one of the Hit List children's shows of the festival and is a one-show only not to be missed performance!

Buster Keaton's "Cops" and "The Scarecrow" 12.15pm and 3.00pm

A perennial Advent Fair favourite, join the very talented Julian Mincham in the theatre for a live piano accompaniment to 2 side-splitting shows, suitable for all ages.
